Numb. 8466.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 10. to Saturday September 14. 1745.

Kenſington, September 11.

THIS Day the Merchants of the City of London waited on his Majeſty with the following Addreſs.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchants of the City of London.

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants of your City of London, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, and to aſſure your Majeſty, That we heartily join in the general Joy which has been expreſſed on your Majeſty's ſafe Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions.

We reflect with the higheſt Sentiments of Gratitude, upon your Majeſty's unwearied Endeavours to ſupport the Liberties of Europe, as well as the true Intereſts of all your Subjects; and we cannot omit this Occaſion of congratulating your Majeſty upon the great Advantages that do, and will accrue to your Majeſty's Subjects, from the Diſtreſſes which the Colonies and Commerce of our Enemies have ſuffered, and eſpecially by the taking of Cape Breton.

And as your Majeſty's Kingdoms are again diſturbed in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender to your Crown, we think it a Duty incumbent upon us, to renew the Aſſurances of our unfeigned Loyalty and Zeal to your Majeſty, and that we will continue to exert our utmoſt Endeavours for the Support of the publick Credit of this Kingdom, and at all Times be ready to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon, your Royal Family and Government.

To which his Majeſty was pleaſed to return this moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you very kindly for this dutiful and loyal Addreſs. This freſh Declaration of the Zeal and Affection of ſo very conſiderable a Body of my Trading Subjects, cannot but have the beſt Effect, in ſupporting the publick Credit, and muſt greatly diſcourage the dangerous Views and Deſigns of the Enemies to my Government.

Kenſington, September 11.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Argyll, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, want Words to expreſs the Satisfaction we felt, upon receiving the News of your Majeſty's happy Arrival to theſe your Dominions, ſo long and ardently wiſh'd for by all your Majeſty's faithful and dutiful Subjects, at a Time when the Enemies to your Perſon and Government were daring enough to take up Arms, with a wicked Intention to deprive us of our Religion, Liberty and Laws; Bleſſings we have ſo long poſſeſs'd, derived down to us from the Revolution, and happily enjoyed under your Majeſty's and Royal Father's auſpicious Reigns.

This City has always diſtinguiſhed herſelf by a firm and ſteady Attachment to Revolution and Whig Principles, and a hearty Abhorrence of all Popiſh and Arbitrary Governments. And in the Year 1715, when a moſt unnatural Rebellion was kindled up againſt your Royal Father, our Zeal for his Perſon and Government was equall'd by few, ſurpaſs'd by none. Since that Time we have oppoſed, as far as was in our Power, every Meaſure that might flatter the Pretender's Hopes.

We beg Leave at this Time to aſſure your Majeſty, That we will ſtand by You, and Your Royal Family, with our Lives and Fortunes; employ every Power we are poſſeſs'd of, and all the Means you ſhall put in our Hands, to diſappoint the Views of France, and baffle the vain Hopes of this raſh Adventurer, who has been audacious enough to attempt to darken and diſturb the Tranquillity of your Majeſty's happy Government.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt obedient and loyal Subjects and Servants,

The Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, in Council aſſembled.

Edinburgh, Sept. 7, 1745.

Sign'd by their Order,

Arch. Stewart, Provoſt.

Kenſington, September 12.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Aſſiſtants of the City of Rocheſter, in Common Council aſſembled, was preſented to his Majeſty by David Polhill, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Aſſiſtants of the City of Rocheſter, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave, in the moſt reſpectful Manner, to preſent your Majeſty with all all poſſible Profeſſions of our Joy, upon your happy Return to your Dominions in Great Britain.

At the ſame Time we Congratulate your Majeſty upon the Succeſs of your Arms in North America, and the Reduction of Cape Breton, which is an Acquiſition of the utmoſt Importance to the Proſperity of Trade, and a Wound in the moſt ſenſible Part to the inſolent and inveterate Enemies of this Nation.

The many Prince-like and Endearing Qualities which we daily experience in your Majeſty, and the ineſtimable Benefits of our Religious and Civil Rights, are too precious to be exchanged for deſpotick Power, and the dreadful Effects of Papal Tyranny: With theſe we are threaten'd by the Invader of your Kingdom, whoſe Pretenſions to your Majeſty's Crown, and his Endeavours to ſupport them, are equally the Subjects of our Scorn and Indignation.

The Proteſtant Succeſſion is our great Palladium; if this is loſt, we are no more a Nation, at leaſt not a Nation of free People. This happy Country, now the Pride and Deſire of the Earth, muſt then become a Sanctuary for Slaves, and ſuch as can with Patience endure to be fettered both in their Souls and Bodies. This ignominious Condition we diſdain, and are ready to demonſtrate, that our Lives and Fortunes are nothing in our Eſteem, whenever your Majeſty's Service, and the publick Wellfare, require this Sacrifice from us.

The good Providence of God will, we hope, be ever watchful over you; make your Majeſty the happieſt as well as the moſt amiable Monarch in the World; and continue a long Series of Princes in your Royal Family, who may tranſmit the Bleſſings we enjoy to all future Generations.

Dated in the Guildhall of the ſaid City, the 9th Day of September 1745.

Kenſington, September 13.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Portſmouth, in the County of Southampton, was preſented to his Majeſty by Colonel Martin Bladen, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Portſmouth, in the County of Southampton.

PErmit, moſt gracious Sovereign, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of Portſmouth, to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe and happy Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions, and on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms at Cape Breton; an Acquiſition of ſo great Importance to the Trade and Commerce of theſe Kingdoms.

And we hope your Majeſty's unwearied Labours to procure a Head to the Empire, as it will abſolutely fruſtrate the deſtructive Meaſures of France, will be crowned with the moſt deſirable Succeſs, and fix upon a firm and laſting Foundation the Liberties of Europe.

We beg Leave, at the ſame Time, in the ſtrongeſt Terms, to declare our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the daring and inſolent Attempts that are now carrying on in Favour of the Pretender and his Family, to corrupt and enſlave a Free and Proteſtant People, and to make them the Tools of a reſtleſs and ambitious Prince, in his moſt favourite and darling Point, univerſal Monarchy.

And we do, with the moſt fervent Zeal, aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall be always ready to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes, and all that is dear to us, in the Defence of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family, and in Oppoſition to all Pretenders, and every other Enemy to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

Kenſington, September 14.

The following Addreſs of the Merchant Company of the City of Edinburgh, having been tranſmitted to the moſt Honourable the Marquis of Tweeddale, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchant Company of the City of Edinburgh.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WITH Hearts full of Gratitude to Almighty God, we received the joyful News of your Majeſty's ſafe Arrival in theſe your Britiſh Dominions, after the Pains your Majeſty has been taking Abroad to ſecure Europe from the boundleſs and wicked Ambition of France.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs the Abhorrence we have of the daring Attempt made upon us by a Tool of Popiſh and Tyrannical Powers, the natural and moſt inveterate Enemies of our happy Conſtitution: And it fills us deeply with Sorrow, that any, enjoying ſacred and civil Liberty, in its fulleſt Extent, under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign and Government, ſhould be ſo far ſunk below the generous Principles of Free Britons, as to court their Chains by abetting the Son of a Popiſh Pretender.

We

We are ſenſible that the Continuance of the inеſtimable Bleſſings, which we have enjoyed ſince the happy Revolution, can only, under God, be ſecured to us and our Poſterity, by the preſent happy Settlement of the Crown in your Majeſty's Royal Houſe; which therefore we are firmly reſolved to maintain, with our Lives and Fortunes, againſt all your Majeſty's Enemies, as well as your unnatural and ungrateful Rebels.

Signed and ſealed in the Preſence and by Appointment of the Company,

Archibald Angus, Maſter.

Edinburgh, Sept. 10, 1745.

Petersbourg, Auguſt 20. The Empreſs left the Summer Palace Yeſterday, and came with the Great Duke and Dutcheſs to the Winter Palace for the reſt of the Seaſon. The Marriage which was to have been ſolemnized as Yeſterday is put off till To-morrow, and ſome ſay till Sunday next.

Stockholm, Auguſt, 30, O. S. Orders are given for bringing the Pyrate Dagenaer from Stralſund hither, where he is to be try'd by a Court of Admiralty, and to be dealt with according to the Laws of this Country. The Prince Succeſſor is gone to Lindkoping, where he intends to review ſome Regiments which are quartered in that Neighbourhood, and the Princeſs his Conſort is at Droningholm, about two Swediſh Miles off, where ſhe advances happily in her Pregnancy. His Swediſh Majeſty is ſuppoſed to be on his Return to this Capital, and Prince William his Brother on his Journey to Caſſel by the Way of Denmark.

Dreſden, Sept. 12, N. S. The Pruſſians are gone from Louban to Sileſia, leaving Receipts for what they took in Luſatia. The King of Pruſſia is ſaid to have detached General du Moulin with another conſiderable Corps towards Luſatia, though this Intelligence is not certain. The firſt Saxon Detachment from the Army in Bohemia, went from hence by Water Yeſterday to Torgaw, and is to be the 14th at Eulenberg, and there remain within a March of Count Rutowski, till future Operations require other Diſpoſitions. General Renard arrived here Yeſterday, as will his Detachment To-day.

Berlin, Sept. 14, N. S. The Corps of Pruſſian Troops in the Neighbourhood of Halle ſtill remain in a State of Inaction; and as it has been publiſhed in the Leipſig Gazette, that all the Merchants may go in Safety to the Fair which is approaching, provided they be furniſhed with Paſſports, it is hoped that all Thoughts of an Invaſion of Saxony are laid aſide. We are aſſured here, that General Geſler, with his Corps of 10,000 Men, is arrived in the Neighbourhood of Croſſen, in order to reinforce that under the reigning Prince of Deſſau; and it is talked as if that whole Army would take the Road towards Erfurt.

Hague, Sep. 21, N. S. Prince George of Heſſe Caſſel arrived here laſt Sunday, and propoſes to ſtay ſome Days. The three Battalions of Hirzel, and Regiment of La Rocque, which make the firſt Diviſion of the Dutch Corps deſtined for Great Britain, have been embarked ſince Saturday laſt, and wait a fair Wind. The reſt of the Dutch Troops are in March, and will be ſhipped as faſt as they arrive. Count Maurice of Naſſau has not yet fixt the Day of his Departure; but Lieutenant General Swartſenberg goes over with the next Mail. The firſt Diviſion of the Heſſians is ſuppoſed to be now near Antwerp; the Second, conſiſting of Horſe, entered Zutphen laſt Sunday, and the Third is expected at Arnheim about the Beginning of next Month.

Whitehall, September 14.

By Accounts from Edinburgh of the 7th and 8th of this Month, a Detachment of the Rebels took Poſſeſſion of Perth on Wedneſday the 4th. That Evening the Pretender was proclaimed there; but the Provoſt and Magiſtrates had left the Place before the Ceremony of the Proclamation began, and others were appointed in their Room. The Marquis of Tullibardine was expected at Perth the Day following with the Athol Men; and it was ſaid the Duke of Perth, as he is commonly called, had joined them with 400 Men well armed. The common Report was, that the Number of the Rebels amounted to 4 or 5000 Men; but by the beſt Intelligence they did not exceed 3000, and theſe but indifferently armed, and many of them forced into their Service. It is alſo ſaid, that ſome Gentlemen of Diſtinction from the Low Countries have joined them. Sir John Cope was on the 3d at Inverneſs, and propoſed to march as next Day towards the South. On the 2d he was joined by 200 Men of the Clan of Monro, under the Command of Sir Robert Monro's Son and Brother. By Letters of the 10th, the Rebels ſtill remain'd at Perth; many of the Men raiſed in Athol have deſerted, and their Numbers in general rather diminiſh than increaſe. Some Nights ago 200 of the Highlanders attacked the Garriſon of Ruthven in Badenoch, which conſiſted only of 12 Men commanded by Serjeant Molloy, who made a bold Defence, repulſed them, killed three, and wounded ſix.

Whitehall, September 6, 1745.

Whereas it has been repreſented to his Majeſty, that an anonymous Letter came by the Poſt on Thurſday the 8th of Auguſt laſt, and by the Mark and Cheque thereupon, ſeems to have been put into the General Poſt-Office in London, directed To Mr. George Cartwright, Esq; at Offington, near Carlton upon Trent, Nottinghamshire, threatning, that if the Waggons were not suffered to pass and repass quietly, without Weighing, and the Stilyard, which had been set up for Weighing of Waggons on that Road, pulled down, both his House, and the Houses of several other Gentlemen, acting as Trustees for the Turnpikes, on the North Side of Foston Bridge to Little Drayton, in Nottinghamshire, should be consumed to Ashes, with several most horrid Expressions of Destruction to the said Gentlemen.

His Majesty for the better discovering, and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing, and sending the said Letter, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice, or Accomplices, so as he, they, or any of them, may be apprehended, and convicted thereof. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Commissioners for the said Turnpikes do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by Mr. Edmund Kirke, of East Markham, in the County of Nottingham, Attorney at Law, or by Mr Lechmere Kirke, Attorney at Law, at Mr. Wrench's, Stationer in Woodstreet, London.

Lechmere Kirke.

War-Office, September 6, 1745.

His Majesty, having thought fit to augment the Four Battalions of Foot Guards doing Duty at home, is pleased to order that the Sum of Six Pounds, Bounty Money, should be paid to each Man five Feet seven Inches high, or upwards, without Shoes, and under 30 Years of Age, who shall inlist with any Officer, belonging to the said Regiments of Guards, or with any Officer of Horse, Dragoons, Foot or Marines in Order to serve in the Guards, and shall be approved by them as able-bodied Men, on or before the 24th of this instant September; the said Bounty Money with Subsistence from the Time of their enlisting respectively to be paid on their Arrival on the Parade, in St. James's Park, London; And that the Sum of Four Pounds Bounty-Money shall be paid to each Man who shall inlist to serve in the Regiments of Guards, answering the above Description after the said 24th Instant, and before the 1st of October next. This publick Notice is hereby given of these his Majesty's Commands, that the proper Officers, and all Persons concerned, may govern themselves accordingly.

By his Majesty's Command,
Will. Yonge.

General Post-Office, August 24, 1745.

Whereas the Communication with Flanders, by the Way of Ostend, is interrupted, and for the present at an End; Publick Notice is hereby given to all Merchants and others whom it may concern, That as their Letters for the several Parts and Provinces of the Austrian Netherlands are now, of Necessity, to be forwarded by the Way of Holland, it will be most proper for them to inclose their Letters and Packets, or recommend them to such as may be their Friends or Correspondents in Holland, from thence to be forwarded to the Places they are designed for in the Netherlands aforesaid; as also that it will be most safe and convenient for them, that the Answers, in Return to their said Letters, should be sent under Cover to Holland, to be forwarded from thence to this Office.

But in regard to the Correspondence with the Army; all Persons are hereby to take Notice, That their Letters, directed for any Person or Persons in the same, will be received at this Office, and from hence forwarded to the Army, in the Manner hitherto observed, a proper Method of conveying the Army Letters directly from hence, having been settled by the Way of Holland, in Conformity to the Usages in regard thereto, during the Wars of King William and Queen Anne.

By Command of the Post-master General,
George Shelvocke, Sec.
